

Contents

Introduction

PART 1 – OVERVIEW OF ISLAMIC FINANCE

- 1 Basic elements of Islamic finance
- 2 Fundamentals of Islamic finance
- 3 Shariah standard asset wealth management and will (Wasiyah) writing mechanisms
- 4 The role of Shariah advisors in the development and enhancement of Islamic securities
- 5 Development of the Shariah-compliant fund market and the role of Shariah scholars played
- 6 Corporate governance in Islamic finance
- 7 Islamic finance: can it contribute something worthwhile to global finance?

PART 2 – APPLICATION

- 8 The prospects of Islamic banks within the Basel II Accord
- 9 Al-Suyulah: the Islamic concept of liquidity
- 10 Islamic finance across the GCC and cross-border considerations
- 11 Money laundering and Islamic banking
- 12 Globalisation of the Islamic banking and finance industry
- 13 Standard & Poor's views on the growth and diversification of Islamic finance
- 14 Role and responsibilities of Shariah scholars in Shariah advisory services
- 15 Islamic banks tolerate risk management
- 16 Risk structures of Islamic finance contracts

PART 3 – PRODUCTS

- 17 Potential of Islamic finance in global market
- 18 Growth outlook and economic considerations in Islamic capital markets
- 19 Understanding derivatives within Islamic finance
- 20 Capital market transparency and fragmentation: lessons for Islamic markets

21 Sukuk and securitisation

22 Development of secondary sukuk market

23 Global reach of Islamic banking and Takaful

PART 4 – SPECIAL ISSUES AND SPECIAL CONSIDERATIONS

24 The role of women in Islamic finance

25 Offshore structuring

26 Ethical investment versus Islamic investment

PART 5 – TAX AND REGULATORY ISSUES

27 The tax treatment of Islamic finance in Western countries and Muslim majority countries

28 The regulation of Shariah compliant financial services and products: approaches and challenges