

Islamic Wealth Management: A Catalyst for Global Change and Innovation

Contents

PART 1 – INTRODUCTION TO ISLAMIC WEALTH MANAGEMENT

1 Untapped potential and expanding to new investment frontiers

Sohail Jaffer

Introduction

Structuring equity funds for Islamic investors

Exploring investment opportunities beyond equities

The potential of Islamic REITs

Alternative investments for Islamic high net worth individuals

The potential of Islamic hedge funds

2 Islamic capital markets in the first decade: developments and issues for the future

Michael J.T. McMillen

Introduction and background

Dow Jones fatwa and sequelae

Sukuk and the capital markets

The secondary markets enigma

Conclusion

3 Globalisation and its impact on Islamic finance: a focus on the changing landscape for Islamic finance

Hari Bhambra

Introduction

Principles of Islamic finance

Islamic finance in practice

Islamic wealth management

Islamic finance in the global markets

Needs of the industry

Regulators in Islamic finance

Regulatory objectives for Islamic finance

Islamic finance and religious alignment and prohibition in the global market

Islamic finance in Islamic secular markets

Other market opportunities

The future of Islamic finance: non-denominational products

Conclusion

4 The global potential of Islamic financial services: towards a truly global market

Nesrine Jaffer

Introduction

Progress towards a global Islamic capital market

Constraints to accelerated globalisation in Islamic capital markets

Islamic retail banking: undeveloped potential

The UK: the exception to the rule in Europe

The need for critical mass in Islamic banking in Muslim-majority countries

The proliferation in Islamic financial centres

Islamic finance hubs in Asia

Conclusion: towards a truly global marketplace for Islamic financial services

5 Emerging economies – offering the possibility for innovative product development

Majid Dawood

Introduction
Emerging markets
Demand driven
Wealth management
Emerging financial centres and Islamic finance
Innovation and trends
Conclusion

6 Contemporary developments and growing options in Islamic wealth management within North America and beyond

Shahzad Siddiqui and Siddiq Mohamed

A compromised state
Incrementalism in Islamic finance
Regulatory roadblocks
Challenges and opportunities
Conclusion

7 Islamic finance, a global alternative and socially responsible investment

Aly Khorshid

Principles of Islamic finance
Islamic instruments for primary markets
Can Islamic investment and banking appeal to non-Muslims?
Conclusion

8 Islamic finance in Lebanon: a viable Near Eastern platform

Ghassan Chammas

Introduction
Lebanon, an emerging Islamic financial hub and market place
Lebanon landmarks: securitisation and fiduciary laws
Islamic funds: Lebanon as an investment platform
Conclusion

PART 2 – WEALTH MANAGEMENT: THE BUYSIDE

9 Beyond the transaction: pairing Islamic wealth and asset management

Douglas Clark Johnson

Missing requisites: segmentation and ideas
Expanding beyond borders
But how to design and manage a portfolio?
Strategy requires implementation
Paving the way
Call for action

10 Real wealth – an Islamic perspective

Omar Clark Fisher

Introduction
Islamic perspective of wealth
Modern dilemma
Concepts to create halal wealth
Methods to build real wealth
Avoidance of riba-based investments and guidance to live debt-free
Tips on gaining wealth through savings and investments

11 Marketing and distribution of Islamic products within a wealth management platform

Naveed Imtiaz Ahmad

The growth of Islamic finance

Retail banking and wealth management
The challenges of distribution
The future

12 Effective wealth management – some issues to consider

Clive Mackinstosh and Mark P. Hurst

PART 3 – WEALTH MANAGEMENT: ASSET MANAGEMENT – EMERGING TRENDS AND OPPORTUNITIES

13 Key trends in Islamic funds

Bernardo Vizcaino

Introduction
Industry size and composition
Industry growth and new launches
Fund location and geographical mandates
Asset allocation
Due diligence components
The asset class mix
Structural evolution
Fund performance
Market behaviour
Correlation analysis
Conclusion

14 Shariah compliant mutual funds

Sonia Borg

Introduction
The Islamic financial services industry
Structured products
ETFs
Multimanager funds and hedge funds
Role of regional financial centres
Future growth
Challenges
Conclusion

15 Analysis of the benefits of Shariah screening tools

Andrew Pell

Introduction
History
The Shariah consultants
Drawbacks of Shariah screening tools in relation to historical research
The study of Shariah screening tools
Conclusion

16 Shariah compliant funds in Luxembourg

Wim Piot and Mukta Attri

Luxembourg fund centre for Islamic funds
Regulation regarding funds and other vehicles
Taxation of funds
Management of funds
Islamic equity fund
Sukuk
Sukuk fund
Specific Islamic product fund

Conclusion

17 Building an Islamic portfolio: perspectives on asset allocation and manager selection

Eric Swats and Jawad Mian

Introduction

Asset allocation

Efficient frontier: risk and return

Asset classes

Manager selection

Case study: the Rasmala experience

Challenges

18 Case study: implementing Shariah compliant investing in a multi-manager environment – the Russell Jadwa funds

Alexandra Haggard, Brian Ingram and Shamindra S. Perera

Introduction

Why multiple managers?

Multi-manager versus manager of managers versus fund of funds

Wealth managers and multi-manager funds

The importance of manager selection for Shariah mandates

Portfolio construction and manager changes in a multi-manager fund

Who is responsible for Shariah compliance?

How to ensure a single standard of compliance?

Which Shariah standards?

Adapting day to day policies to meet Shariah requirements

Russell Jadwa products so far

The future

19 Socially responsible investing

Zaha Rina Zahari and Bala Shanmugam

Introduction

Defining socially responsible investing

History of SRI

Categories of SRI participation

Value based SRI approaches

Trend of SRI

Contributing factors of SRI growth

Factors limiting growth of SRI

Adverse effects of SRI

SRI index monitor

Major providers of SRI investments

Case study: Islamic finance

Conclusion

20 Can Islamic asset management aim a little higher? Achieving maturity and the impact of socially responsible investment

Mark Stanley and Salmaan Jaffery

Introduction

Demand – the future looks bright

Supply – the nascent Islamic fund universe

Widening the investor base – socially responsible investment

Conclusions

PART 4 – WEALTH MANAGEMENT: TAKAFUL

21 The application of takaful to Islamic wealth management

Peter Vayanos and Philipp Wackerbeck

Introduction

Fundamentals of takaful

Background and development of takaful

The role of insurance in wealth management

Opportunities for takaful in Shariah compliant wealth management

Business models to deliver takaful products

Challenges to be addressed

Conclusion

22 Bancatakaful

Ajmal Bhatti

Introduction

The prospects

Key drivers

The stakeholders

Bancatakaful models

Cost benefits

The financial motivation

Conclusions

23 Takaful as a dedicated wealth management tool

Azeem Iqbal Pirani and Farhan Noor

Introduction

Takaful (Islamic insurance)

Takaful as a wealth management firm

Takaful as a wealth preservation/protection tool

Takaful as a wealth multiplication tool

Takaful as a wealth transfer tool

Takaful as a wealth purification tool

Conclusion

24 Takaful and re-takaful: using the UK as a platform to Europe

Susan Dingwall and Ffion Flockhart

The potential for takaful in Europe

The regulation of takaful in Europe

The regulation of re-takaful in Europe

The importance of choosing a suitable home state regulator

Conclusion

PART 5 – WEALTH MANAGEMENT: ALTERNATIVE INVESTMENT STRATEGIES

25 Islamic banks and sukuk: growing fast, but still fragmented

Anouar Hassoune

Introduction

Sukuk are always structured products

Islamic banks perform specific financial intermediation

The future is full of challenges and constraints for the Islamic financial industry

26 A promising future for the sukuk market

Moyn Uddin and Andre Portelli

Introduction

Global sukuk market

Structuring sukuk

Structures being used

Key differences
Musharaka, mudaraba, wakala sukuk? Or ijara sukuk?
Recent innovations in sukuk structures
What happens in the event of a default or bankruptcy?
Issuers looking to sukuk as a viable alternative
Access to European, Far East and US assets
Market status
Conclusion

27 The practitioners' working guide to sukuk

John H.C. Yip

Background
Introduction
What exactly is a sukuk?
How to originate a sukuk issuance?
Sukuk origination and structuring issues
Conclusion

28 Innovation and new opportunities: sukuk in the West

Tricia Boutros

Introduction to sukuk: becoming familiar with Islamic finance in the West
Applicability and accessibility of Islamic finance to western enterprise
Practical considerations for western sukuk issuances: forum selection, taxation and regulation
Nature of the assets: specific requirements under Shariah
Recent examples and future considerations
Conclusion

29 Real estate for the investor portfolio

Abdulkader Thomas

Introduction
Real estate risk and opportunity
Direct real estate investment
Real estate funds
REITs and REOCs
Leveraging real estate investments
Frontiers of real estate investment
Screening
Purification of incidental impermissible income
Tax and nationalisation risks
Conclusions

30 Shariah compliant private equity finance

Rodney Wilson

The role of private equity finance in the Islamic world
The emergence of private equity finance in the MENA region
Screening criteria for private equity investment
Shariah compliant venture capital in Malaysia
Potential and limitations of diminishing musharakah
Principles of musharakah
An adaptive musharakah structure
Overcoming moral hazard
Musharakah as an equity or debt instrument?
Future prospects

31 Islamic private equity: an examination of opportunities and issues for an evolving industry

Dilip N. Massand and Paul C. Homsy

Introduction

Shariah requirements and private equity

Sample Shariah structures for private equity transactions

Investment opportunities for Islamic private equity

Issues concerning different share classes, rewards, protection

Conclusion

PART 6 – REGULATORY, LEGAL AND RISK MANAGEMENT

32 Regulatory, supervisory and legal implications relating to Islamic wealth management

Simon Archer

Introduction

Investment accounts with Islamic banks

Investment products offered by takaful undertakings

Islamic mutual funds

Islamic investment certificates (sukuk)

Conclusion

33 Corporate governance in Islamic finance

Nasser Saidi

Introduction

Corporate governance

Islamic banking

Corporate governance framework of Islamic banks and financial institutions

IFSB principles and AAOIFI governance standards

Internal and external Shariah compliance for IFIs

Corporate governance in takaful and re-takaful industry

Common corporate governance practices in banks and other institutions

Conclusions

34 Risk management issues of Shariah compliant wealth management

Zamir Iqbal

Introduction

Risk exposures

Risk management strategy

Conclusion

35 When finance converges with faith

Christopher O'Brien and Alka Banerjee

Introduction

Where a growing offer is answering to latent demand

Creating Shariah compliant equity indices

Construction of Shariah compliant indices

Generally accepted principles of Shariah compliance

Returns from the Shariah indices

Commercial applications of Shariah equity indices

Comparison to the Dow Jones Islamic market indexes

Conclusion

36 Taxation of investment funds

Mohammed Amin and Elizabeth Stone

Tax treatment of UK funds

Offshore funds distributing into the UK

Tax implications of an offshore fund with a UK investment manager or UK director